Welcome

We'd like to take this opportunity to welcome you to K.I.S.S. (Keep it Simple Solutions) and introduce to you our exciting range of Superior Cleaning & Degreasing Solutions.

Extensive research has gone into the development of our products, & with the advancements in the latest science techniques, has led our product research into NANNO TECHNOLOGY. Now let me introduce you to Nanno Technology. Nanno Technology is the science of things really small, for example if you take a strand of your hair and measure it, it would be approximately 25,000 nanno meters thick, now in saying that, nanno technology starts at under 100 nanno meters thick & incorporating this technology into our superior Cleaning & De-greasing Solutions allows any washable surface that superior clean, & while investing time and effort to ensure our products meet the challenges that face the Hospitality & Accommodation Industries, & all the way down to your Family Home.

Our Director and founder Brad Jones, who first started as a chef in top ranking restaurants and knows

Welcome to Secombe Aviation

The aim of Secombe Aviation is to bring wisdom, knowledge, understanding, insight and application to pilots studying aviation theory.

Secombe Aviation can help you into the seat of your airline career. Our ATPL courses will guide you through your studies so that you pass each of these examinations. Each subject is tailored to meet your needs - complete with explanations, procedures and where appropriate worked examples, along with plenty of questions, quizzes and practice exams. You have the choice to complete your ATPL studies by either classroom courses at Bankstown Airport or by correspondence. You may choose to do subjects individually, in any combination, as many or as few as you need, or as a full course.

Whether you elect to study within the classroom or by correspondence, you will find that these courses offer an exceptional opportunity to learn in simple easy steps. These courses have been used by pilots from all backgrounds including the military, General Aviation, airlines as well as university students. If works for them, it will work for you too. Over 90% of our students pass their exams on their first attempt! Wow!

About

Wright Words Writing Services has a strong understanding of the non-Government organisation (NGO) sector, especially in the Western Sydney and Blue Mountains regions. We work closely with NGOs, Government departments, and small businesses to create dynamic and informative documents as well as eye-catching promotional materials.

Leila Wright

I have worked in the not-for-profit sector for nearly 20 years in both Australia and the US, serving in a range of roles from Festival Coordinator to Fundraising Manager. Throughout my career, I have utilised my writing skills to apply for new projects, promote activities, and report on achievements.

I have written numerous successful tenders to various Government departments including NSW Health, Commonwealth Department Health and Ageing, NSW Community and Family Services, Commonwealth Department of Families, Housing, Community Services and Indigenous Affairs, and many others.

Over the years I have submitted successful grant applications to philanthropic funders and started new projects in the areas of mental health, carer support, young women's projects, and the arts. I regularly develop brochures, media releases, annual reports, articles, and other written materials for clients in the not-for-profit sector.

I have a Bachelor of English literature from the University of California at Berkeley, a Bachelor of Social Work, and a current Certificate IV in Training and Assessment.
